

LITERARY SURVEY · SIXTEEN SESSIONS

Survey of American Literature

From Indigenous voices and Puritan sermons to contemporary writing

An unhurried journey through four centuries of American literature. Reading together, in the room, at a human pace. Native American oral traditions, Puritan writers, the American Enlightenment, the Romantic and Transcendentalist movements, the abolitionists, the Civil War generation, the Realists and Naturalists, the Modernists, the Harlem Renaissance, and the writers working today. Discussion-based; no papers, no grades, no prerequisites.
